Principal's Report – Chris Malone

Breakfast Club

This week was another big week and we continue to need donations of UHT milk, margarine and milo. The Sale Sunday Market have offered to donate $1000 to this program if we can get 6 parent helpers on Easter Sunday from 7am-2pm to help. This money would go a long way to fund the Breakfast Club for the year. Please contact the school office if you would like to help at the market.

Just a reminder that Breakfast Club won't be operating this Friday due to Garden Party preparations.

School Council Elections

Welcome new School Councillors, Kim Cook, Liam Cole, Rod Bettess and Michele Caldow and congratulations to returning Councillors; Michael Hatwell and Ewen Jondahl.

Thanks to outgoing Councillors, Clare Baldwin, Jenny Roberts, Michael Peverill and Rod Smith for their contribution to Sale Primary School over the past four years.

Parents and Friends –Katie Weire

Canteen

The canteen will open this term on Wednesday and Friday lunchtimes. However the canteen will not be operating TOMORROW Wednesday March 20 OR THIS Friday March 22 due to garden party preparations.

Music – Phil Bartlett

Flute & Clarinet Lessons

We'd like to see students taking up flute and clarinet as these instruments could be included in the concert band. If your child would like to learn one of these instruments, we may have a spare instrument for them to hire. Please see Mr. Bartlett for details.

Swimming News

Bree Courtney

The Gippsland Region Swimming Championships were held last week here in Sale, with teams from all over Gippsland competing. Well done to the nine 545 students who competed in their events, representing our school and the Wellington Shire. I've been unable to locate all the results from this event, however, two results I do have are:

Stella– 3rd in 50m Butterfly

OPEN Mixed Medley Relay Team – 5th overall. Well done to Crue (backstroke), Maeve Hatwell (breaststroke), Stella (butterfly) and Georgia (freestyle).

Well done to the rest of our swim team on their wonderful achievements this swim season;

Crue– 50m backstroke

Esther– 50m freestyle

Cassie – 50m backstroke

Janella– 50m breaststroke

U10 Girls 4x50m Relay Team – Cassie, Micala, Matilda, Esther (4th in their heat).
