Learn to Play an Instrument...

Young people of Sale and District- brand new brass instruments are waiting for you to play! From the kind support of the Wellington Shire Grants program, the Sale Brass Academy is seeking enrolments for 2017 to fill the 8 shiny new instruments. The brass band environment offers one of the richest, most diverse, enjoyable, and educational experiences for people of all ages- no musical knowledge required! Since its commencement, The Sale Brass Academy has exponentially grown in numbers and support. For the first time in a decade, 2016 saw the band run out of instruments for learners. The passion and support of members of the Sale City Band therefore sought Shire support to ensure the people of Sale and district can take up the opportunity to learn a brass instrument. Run by volunteers, the Academy provides the most cost effective way of learning an instrument, and provides the unique opportunity to continue musical education beyond the schooling years.

The Sale Brass Academy provides regular weekly rehearsals starting at 4.15pm on Tuesdays during the school term. Interested players and families are invited to come and try in May from 4pm. For more information, please visit salecityband.com.au or The Sale Brass Academy on Facebook.
