Topics for the AMC vary and will include a wide range of mathematical concepts, as well as problem-solving questions. The competition includes a total of 30 questions with 25 multiple choice and 5 integers, designed each year by leading educators and academics to challenge and extend your students' problem-solving skills.

This competition is available to students from Years 3 to 6, primary divisions are allocated 60 minutes to complete the AMC.

Registrations are now open, with printed entries closing on Friday July 5. The cost to participate in the AMC is $8.50 AUD per student.

If your child is interested in participating in the AMC please collect a form from the front office and return the signed form and $8.50 to Mrs Suzy Johnston

WELLBEING NEWS
ABBEY CONROY
STUDENT WELLBEING OFFICER

The middle school Wellbeing Group have created a new sign for breakfast club. Bayley, Evie, Jess, Lucy, Levi and Jaya helped to paint and decorate the sign. You'll see it on display Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings. It looks great - well done!

Last Week's Visiting Performances

Last week students attended two visiting performances here at school.

Last Wednesday, middle and senior school students attended the ALPHA performance and last Friday, all students attended when The Bell Shakespeare Company visited 545 to perform the play "Just Romeo and Juliet".

The play was written alongside The Bell Shakespeare Company with popular Australian children's author Andy Griffiths.

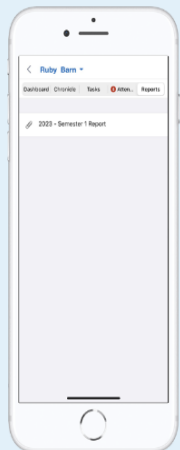

Filled with Shakespeare's classic text and characters, the play cleverly mirrors the action and themes of the original play. Classic tragedy collides with side-splitting comedy, an entertaining introduction to Shakespeare for students. It certainly captivated the students' attention, with lots of laughter and smiles throughout the play.

How headspace can help

Your first appointment at headspace

Appointments at a headspace centre can vary in length but are usually 50 minutes to an hour.

It's okay to feel nervous about getting help for the first time. It can be helpful to bring along a family member, carer or friend to help support you.

You'll probably be asked a lot of questions on your first visit. This is to make sure that all the important issues are covered, and to help develop the best solution for you. As you get to know and trust your headspace worker you will probably find that talking about what is going on gets easier.

The appointment is your time. Feel free to ask questions about anything that's on your mind so the headspace worker can help you find the best solution, or find the information that you need. It also helps the headspace worker to understand what is worrying you.

Cost

Services at a headspace centre are either free, or have a low cost. You can ask if there is a cost when you make your appointment.

Some services require you to have a referral from a doctor. But don't worry; headspace can help you with this as well.

All headspace services are free but if you call from your mobile your usual call charges apply.

eheadspace

If you don't have a headspace centre nearby or you don't feel ready to visit a centre, eheadspace provides confidential online and telephone support 7 days a week.

To access eheadspace for the first time all you need to do is register at headspace.org.au or phone 1800 650 890. You will need to provide some information like your email address, postcode and age. eheadspace sessions are generally for 30-60 minutes.

If you are receiving support from a headspace centre or another service, headspace may ask your permission to speak with your worker to ensure eheadspace is providing the best possible support.

Confidentiality

When you talk to a headspace worker what you say is kept confidential. This means nothing you say can be passed on to anyone else without your permission however there are a few exceptions.

If headspace is seriously worried about your safety or the safety of someone else they must – by law – try to keep everyone safe.

This means they might have to share their concerns with someone else. Talk to your headspace worker about confidentiality to ensure you understand how it works.

If you need immediate medical attention, call 000 or call Lifeline on 13 11 14 or Kids Helpline on 1800 55 1800.

Getting the help that's right for you

When you talk with a headspace worker it's important that you feel safe and comfortable – headspace will do its best to make sure this happens.

If you do not think your headspace visits are working out it is important to ask yourself why. There could be a few reasons: it might be because it is hard to talk about what's on your mind, or it might be that you and your worker are not the right fit. Either way, don't give up. Talk to your worker about how you are feeling and together you can find a way forward.
